Heney called the elder Attorney Moore a "liar" and a "shyster," and Moore retorted by pronouncing Heney a "rascal," referring to his Arizona record. The court records show that Heney was punished by Judge Kibbey for improper relations with a jury while he was trying a case. The jury was fired, a mistrial caused, and Heney's legal career came near ending then. Judge Kibbey made the charge contempt of court, and Heney escaped with a fine. SAN FRANCISCO, June 77.—The telegraphers' strike bears no change on the surface. It is claimed by the strikers that the Western Union is tied up tighter on the sixth day of the strike than they were on the opening evening the strike was called, but this is denied by officers of the company.
L. W. Storrer, general superintendent

I. N. Miller, Jr., assistant general superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Co. said this morning that the company has seventy operators at work out of the total of 175 that are needed to give full service. He declared that everything is satisfactory, so far as the strike is concerned, and that there is not more than fifteen minutes' delay in the handling of messages.

LOCAL TELEGRAPH BUSINESS STEADY

Manager R. H. Miller of the Western Union Telegraph Company and Superintendent Lewis of the Postal enter emphatic denials of the reports sent out through the Associated Press from San Francisco yesterday as to the congested condition of telegraph business at Los Angeles.

Lewis says business conditions in the Postal office are estisfactory, although the company keeps "delay" notices posted to protect itself in case unforeseen emergencies should arise.

Some of them have been with us for years; several are almost completing their fifteen-year period, which would entitle them to life pensions. Operators who have served with this company for fifteen years are entitled to retire on pensions amounting to 20 per cent. of their regular salaries. "Of course, if the went out on strike these men would forfelt this standing, which means a great deal to them. We know that they would do all in their power to precent such a complication.

"However, if the point should be reached where our men walked out, we are most fortunately situated. I am an old operator myself, and I have four assistants right here in the business office who could step right to the keys and continue business."

Manager Miller of the Western Union declared:

"We are practically clear on business to the News."

"We are practically clear on business to the North. Chicago business today has not been delayed more than two hours. We absolutely deny the reports appearing in the press dispatches this morning, and purporting to have been sent out by the Press Committee of the telegraphers at San Francisco, so far as Los Angeles conditions are concerned.

We have, of course, a certain percentage of the 'floatera,' and it is this clement which is always to be depended on to foment troubles. Their votes count just as much as those of the solid, conservative members, and they sometimes are able to force a walk-out sgainst the wishes of the resulty steady and reliable men. That is one of the grave troubles with unionism.

Nicaraguan troops are reported to be on the way to invade Guatemala on its eastern coast. Puerto Barsios is believed to be the contemplated point of attack. The port is practically unprotected at present but Guatemalan troops are being rushed through.

An attack on both Guatemala and Honduras on their southern coasts is expected to follow any attack from the Carribean side. A land assault is possible on Salvador, as the Nicaraguan troops can easily march across Honduras.

The moment Guatemala is attacked. Salvador and Guatemala are expected to announce an alliance. Their interests are mutual in opposing Zelaya's plans, as the conquest of both is a step in the establishment of his Central American confederacy. Since the failure of Zelaya's plan to subjugate Ssivador by sending Nicaraguan troops to assist revolutionists who seized Acquitta, but were defeated and decided to abandon the town, Zelaya is known to have been proparing for an direct attack on both Salvador and Information comes from one of the party that the instructions given them were to stay in that camp until all the surveying for the big Sierra tunnel was completed. The party is in charge of D. D. Grimth as Chief Engineer, who was identified with the work on the Lucin cut-off at Sait Lake City.

He is reported as being authority for the information that the route of the road on the east side of the Sierras has not changed to conform to slight changes in the route of the tunnel. At a point about a mile west of Truckee, a run will be made to the north, crossing Denner Creek, passing to the north of Donner Lake and about a mile beyond Donner where the tunnel will be built. The west end of the tunnel will be in the head waters of Bear River.

The new route at its highest point will be upwards of 700 feet lower than the old line, taking off much of the heavy grade on both sides of the summit. Some months ago Postmaster Owen to the eabandoned horses and cars for to collecting mail and inaugurated a special system in which autos were used. These autos were especially fromstructed by the Johnson Service Company of this city and are so built that the mail is distributed and tied to pin bundles as fast as it is collected. By the time the mail reaches the postoffice it is ready for routing, whereas, under the old system, it would always have to be distributed. The government inaugurated the system in Milwaukee as an experiment but it has proven such a success that it is to be established throughout the country.

ing the almost identical questions involved in this case to the Thaw case, Mr. Jerome sent a personal telegram to Judge Barksdale, which reached him before the opening of court today, citing additional authorities on the admissibility of the evidence which the prosecution wanted to introduce, to show that Miss Loving's confession to her father of what took place on the buggy ride was false.

The arguments on this point were completed yesterday, and Judge Barksdale was to render his opinion at the opening of court. He had already determined not to admit the evidence when Dist. Atty. Jerome's telegram was received. Not being possessed of the magnificent library of the County of New York, the authorities cited by Mr. Jerome were not accessible.

In refusing to admit the evidence which the prosecution wanted, the time of the trial has been shortened at least a week, and as a result many family feuds which would undoubtedly have started have been averted. The prosecution was sorely disap-

The scene was sultry. Mr. Metson, of Schmitz's counsel, roasted the court to his face and somehow managed to escape going to jail for it.

While he was waiting for the judge to come in, he was trying to read a newspaper but I noticed that he was staring absently at the arrival of ships on the water front. There were great hollows under his eyes; he looked haggard and anxious and his skin was a sort of unhealthy pasty white.

When Judge Dunne came hurrying into the courtroom, Schmitz watched him as though he were his hangman.

A Bush of relief came into the face of the convicted felon as the judge began intimating that a continuance must be ordered. His lawyers, however, fought it to the point of calling down insults on the heads of the court. There was nothing in the colloquy between Dist.-Atty. Langdon and the court reasonably calculated to cheer the heart of a defendant. Langdon practically announced that he was figuring out whether Gene would get a hearter sentence by having the court give him the limit on this one charge or by going on with the other trials. In the course of the argument the solution became strained and tense.

As Dunne is famed as the judge who sends inwyers to juil at the drop of the hat for contempt, every one looked to see Metson get it. Instead, the court merely remarked rather plaintively:

"Mr. Metson, your remarks are most offensive, and are almost contempt. However, as the court has been so patient for six months, I can stand it for a week longer."

Fairall got up with two copies of bills of exception, and asked the court to appoint a day in which to settle them in order that the appeals may be carried to the Court of Appeals.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Worms of dissension are eating Heney's "big stick." The difference of opinion over the selection of a new chief of police has come to an open rupture.

Charles Sontag, chairman of the Police Committee of the grand jury, has been making an attempt to have Col. Thomas Wilhelm appointed chief of police, and Jerry Dinan kicked out. Langdom and the others of the grait investigation are blocking that effort.

Wilhelm is a retired army officer detailed by the War Department to act as inspector of the California militia. The Governor has signified his approval of the appointment of Wilhelm and the latter has stated that he will accept the office for a period not to exceed sixty days.

Although the appointment was rumored to take place at the meeting of the police commission today, the appointment was not made. Sontag was incensed. He spoke with much bitterness of Heney.

NEW YORK, June 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jacob A. Riis, philanthropist, sociologist, author, is about to marry again. Mrs. Riis died in May, 1960.

In August of this year, Miss Marry Philips, who has been Mr. Riis's stenographer and secretary, as well as literary helper for several years, will become his wife. Miss Philips is 25. Mr. Riis evades the questions and congratulations of friends by running away to Boston and his fiancee has retired to the quiet precincts of Ipswich, Mass., where she may prepare her trousseau and evade notoriety.

Miss Philips is the daughter of Mrs. S. Phillips, formerly of St. Louis, but now of Boston, and she comes of a family of social standing. Several times within the last few months rumor has had it that Mr. Riis was to marry again, and each time the report has been denied with such positiveness as to set it at rest for a time, but the rumor was revived today and this time it was nailed down hard and fast.

Mr. Riis has been living with a friend, Richard Ellard, in Great Neck. The Ellards today confirmed the rumor. Mrs. Ellard added that the wedding was to take place the latter part of August.

In "The Making of an American," published in 1961, two years before the death of his wife, Mr. Riis wrote of her as David Copperfield might have written of Agnes.

NEW TORK, June 37.—Patrick O'Mara, one of the speakers last night at a dinner of wholesale seedsmon, who have been holding their convention here, caused a stir by announcing that a new fruit is being raised in New Jersey, which will be known as the "millionaire strawberry."

Mr. O'Mara said the new strawberry would be almost as large as a Burbank potato. He visited the farm in New Jersey, he said, where the new fruit is growing, and found that nearly two carloads will be ready for market next season.

New Jersey Enters Lists With Bid for Vanderbilt Contest—Good Reads an Inducement, JERSET CITY, June 27.—New Jersey

JERSET CITY, June 27.—New Jersey comes to the front with a choice of course for the fourth annual Vanderbilt international cup race. Wilbur F. Sadler, a prominent young business man of the State capital, who is president of the association of automobile clubs of New Jersey, is very much in earnest over the matter and said that he believed that the present automobile law would not be violated providing local authority be received to hold such a race and he had no doubt whatever about such authority being secured. He called attention to the fact that if the State of New York could allow local authority he saw no reason why New Jersey, which has the best roads in the Union, would offer objection, as that the Vanderbilt cup race will bring one quarter million dollars to New Jersey besides untold advertising value.

Mr. Sadler stated that the 2000 members of the associated clubs, in considerable with the Union, would graard the course and he believed in necessary, the military authority the saw of the course and he believed if necesary, the military authority the save of the associated clubs, in considerable of the course and he believed if necesary, the military authority the save of the associated clubs, in competition with professionals will be regarded as a professional in meet.

SQUIRES GAINING FRIENDS.

(BT 1de Associated Press.—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Betting on the Burns-Squires fight has started in earnest and Corbett's resort is nightly packed with a bunch of those inclined toward sport and sporting, all anxious to get their money down on either fighter at the best possible price. So far most of the wagering has been done at even money or 10 to 9, with Burns the favorite, but an abundance of Squires coin is on hand and Burns money is eagerly grabbed at that figure. From present indications it looks as though the Australian will be a ringside favorite. As a betting proposition the Fourth of July milli promises to break all records.

Squires is still working away at San Rafael. Tommy Burns has practically completed his hard work. He is down to his best fighting weight and while he intends continuing the regular labor the duration of each stunt will be materially shortened.

Seats for the big Colma attraction were placed on sale this morning.

HINSDALE (III.) June 27.—The two day's play for the western open golf championship began this morning over the Hinsdale course. Thirty-six holes were played today, and thirty-six will be played tomorow. Very few there should be enough excitement and please any of the fans.

Much comment and criticial study of form has occupied the fight fans during the day previous to McCarey's tryout card. The general view is that in the two star bouts Menney will outclass the game and hard-hitting McCovern, and Berry will beat Billy Walsh, if the latter's fast work and science fails to stop him inside of three or four rounds.

In footing on the ladder of local pugilistic fame.

On the whole, the card should be productive of some good slugging, a fair show of science, and all the gameness these little fellows have proved themselves possessors of in the past.

Kid Webster will be in Berry's corner, and a host of the towel-wagging fraiernity will be in attendance on the other battlers.

See the game and hard-hitting McCovern, and Berry will beat Billy was not the westerly excitent of the west sixth-street line. It was in charge of conductor J. O. Heunp, known to the railroad men as "Big Hemple."

At Hobart boulevard, a man standing at the sireet intersection signalled the of despondency caused Wincup to act without reflection, as he made no preparations, and left no note or communication. They believe that he suddenly realized what he had done, and was bound for the drug store to secure an antidote for the poison. At midnight he was much improved.

Tommy Leahy is still fat, and not in the best of condition. Guy Martin, the Pasadena youth, is looked upon as a dark horse, likely to develop into a disagreeable surprise for Scotty Johnson. His quiet manners and determined air have won him a host of new friends. Jake Arnold retains his retinue of backers, and is looked upon to carry out his early promise in his match with Donovan, who will make a first appearance and endeavor to gain a footing on the ladder of local puglistic fame.

Imperial Valley Magazine.

The first number of the Imperial Valley Magazine wil be off the press July 15, and will thereafter appear regularly on the 15th of each month. The first issue will be largely devoted to the canteloupe industry, illustrated with many fine half-tone pictures, with special design for the cover, printed in colors. Advance orders for the magazine should be sent to the publisher, T. J. Boyd, El Centro, Cal.

Free Lecture on Maeria.

Alfred Foster, lecturer and traveler, will deliver a free lecture on New Zeahand, at the rooms of the Y.M.C.A. this evening, which will be tillustrated with nearly 200 colored lantern slides. His subject will be: "Life Among the Maoris," and the pictures will illustrate hilfe and customs of this people, and many of the remarkable natural features of the country. Precitickets to the lecture may be obtained at the office of the association.

Applies the Golden Rule.

The Nazarene Publishing Company, a church publishing house in this city, shows a practical adaptation of the Golden Rule in a notice which it has sent out to its patrons. This reads: "We endeavor to conduct our business by the Golden Rule. Pursuant to this we have decided to close our shop July 3 and 4. For some time we have and we think it only fair to give them an extra day to rest, as the proper celebration of the Fourth of July will require their whole attention on that day."

BREVITIES.

Everything points to a large attendance at the auction tomorrow—Saturiday—of the 127 lots remaining unsold in Hollywood Park Place, on Cahuenga avenue, one and a half blocks morth of Paul de Longpré's home, and two blocks from the street railway, bank, City Hall and postoffica. The W. A. Roberts Realty Company and Otto Weld & Co., the sole agents. report a very large inquiry as a result of their short advertising campaign, and announce that the sale will be absolutely without reserve. The auctioner has been instructed to sell at any price until 39,000 is realized to pay for street -improvements. Terms will be one-fifth cash, balance in thirty equal payments. One thing that has added to the interest in this acution sale is the fact that a new electric line has been surveyed from Los Angeles directly through the center of Hollywood Park Place on Weld avenue. A new branch of the Los Angeles Pacific will run to Franklin street, an 89-foot boulevard in Hollywood Park Place. A. W. Louderbock will be the auctioneer, and a good luncheon will be nerved at noon. Free tickets are being issued from the offices of the agents, 614 O. T. Johnson building, which will be kept open till 9 o'clock this evening for this purpose. Those wishing to attend may take any Hollywood car and get off at Cahuenga avenue. Auction will begin at 19 a.m., and continue all day on tract, 1th blocks north.

punity. A much happier bunch of people were ready for supper than had arrived in the dusty cars.

Of the cars that failed to get perfect scores, most were penalized for carburetter or coil adjustment, due in at least one or two instances, to a desire to cut down fuel in order to win a place in the economy contest. One car cast a hub cap; another had trouble with a bumper. There were no serious breaks, and absolutely no accidents. There were a few complaints of road hogging, but not many.

One car cast a hub cap; another had trouble with a bumper. There were no serious breaks, and absolutely no accidents. There were a few complaints of road hogging, but not many.

When the cars arrived in the control at Elsinore they were left in five long rows in a large corral bounded by barbed wire. After they were filled with oil and gasoline they were left under guard for the night. All repairs must be made tomorrow morning.

Few of the motorists realized how near they came to remaining in Elsinore for lack of gasoline. There have been two freight wrecks on the railroad in the last few days and there was a gasoline famine owing to the delay of shipments.

DEATH RIDES IN BIG AUTO.

Tourist Killed by the Son of Wealthy Family.

Run Down at Street Crossing, Death Comes Quickly.

Boy in Charge of Machine Was en Route to Dance.

Accompanied by a friend whom he addressed as "Dick." young Crary left his home in his father's big touring car to attend a dance and housewarming at the home of Capt. William Banning. As he neared Figueroa street, young Crary states, a man stepped from the curb apparently with the intention of crossing Seventh stroet, but after advancing several steps went back to the curb and then again advanced. By this time the machine was so close that upon the man again stepping into the roadway Allan was unable to steer clear of him and the next moment the unfortunate tourist was struck and hurled to the ground near the corner.

HASTEN TO HELP. twenty feet. He and his friend, who is said to be Richard Armstrong, who recently had trouble at the Harvard Military School, Jumped from the auto and hurried to the side of their victim. They picked up Leland, who was unconscious, and carried him between them to the hospital of the Good Samaritan, which was within half a block of where the accident took place. Dr. W. LeMoyne Wills was called, but by the time he arrived Leland was dead. Crary, who has been a familiar figure in local amateur athletics, is the son of Charles E. Crary, of the Crary-Fitch Company of this city, and has been a driver of automobiles ever since he was about 12 years old, according to his father, and is thoroughly familiar with their running. The young man states, also according to his father, that he was running the machine down the hill slowly, and that it was under perfect control.

CONFELICTING REPORTS.

Reports have been made, however,

CONFLICTING REPORTS.

Reports have been made, however, to Coroner Lanterman and to the police that the big tourist car was going at an exceedingly fast rate of speed, and struck Leland with such force that the unfortunate man died within a few minutes. Other witnesses speak a good word for Crary, and say that he had his machine under control.

The dead man was between 40 and 10 years of age, well dressed, but apparently without funds. His address was given as the Golden State Hotel, at Central avenue and Fifth street, but there it was denied that any such man lived there. It is said that he leaves a sister, Mrs. G. H. Kelly, who lives in Merchantrelle, N. J.

Crary has been one of Harvard's school's star football players for four years. Last fall he played haif-back and was regarded as one of the most aggressive and speedy men on the team. When he accompanied the Harvard school track team to the interscholastic track meet at Stanford this spring he was lavishly entertained by the college fraternities, and returned home wearing the pledge pin of one of them. He planned to enter Stanford next August.

Dumping two hundred and fifty people into a town of seven hundred inhabitants is a hazardous experiment, but all the motorists have been cared for and with plenty of good nature everything has been accepted. 'T did not say I was going to kill Urtsman," testified W. C. Chormicle yesterday in the Superior Court, while under cross-examination by counsel for the give men who sued him for $30,000 each for alleged false and malicious arrest.

'Did you ever say anything he might have taken as a threat to kill him?" counsel acked.

The stern old man knitted his wrinkled brows in meditation.

'I' don't think it was like threstening to kill him," he said reflectively. "I saw him on the road one day, long before there was any trouble about my cattle, and called him to come up to the buggy. I didn't have anything against him, but he had been telling Mrs. Rose's daughter she mustn't drive her cattle to water across the land his wife was claiming.

"He didn't come near the buggy, so I just called out to him what I had to say, I told him that if he interfered with the girl driving her cattle I would take some of the boys down with a rope and hang him."

Some one in the courtroom laughed. The old man's dull ears caught the sound, and his sharp eyes fixed them-

Shirtwaist Suits

Linen or Lawn. Values $12.50 to $16.50

No dressmaker would begin to make up for you shirtwaist suits with the style of these, for anything like today's prices, to say nothing of the cost of materials and trimmings you'd have to buy. Some of the dresses concerned are lasishly hand-embroidered on white linen, others are made of white lawns, with embroidery and insertion bands, still a third style is of figured lawns, lace-trimmed.

Each one is a garment bought to sell for not less than $12.50—some are real $16.50 values; ordinarily you'd gladly pay that for them; today choose at ten dollars, and get a handsome, cool summer dress, for next to nothing.

A Corset Style for You

Not every woman wants the style of corset, by any means The long back, high bust, pery small waist corset in demand now by many of the fashionably gowned, doesn't suit the requirements of others at all.

So we try to carry in stock all the time such a diversity of good styles, in many tried and tested makes, that every one shall be able to make perfectly satisfactory selection.

Such corsets as Redfern, Lily of France, Lestelle, La Grecque, Kabo, Warner's Rust Proof, C. B., and others cannot be improved upon for comfort and graceful contour.

A Broadway window shows a few of the many different models.

Don't fail to watch for the sale of plain and fancy colored silks beginning Monday, we shall offer values extraordinarily good, even for us.

Small Farm was a sensible argument delivered by Lawrence Bell, and Miss Dorothy C. Golding, made an oration on "Modern Education," that was delivered in splendid voice, displaying fine reasoning powers.

A young lad of the summer "11 class, Jaime W. Overton, with his violin, cast a spell of Hungarian music over the audience, playing the Candas scene from Jeno Hubay's "Hejre Kati," with an assured touch and temperamental power that were astonishing. The presentation of the class was made by Principal Francis, who saw in it the realization of years, the first fruits of his hopes and dreams. Diplomas were presented, and the exercises were completed with the singing of Conizetti's Spring Song, by the graduating class. The hundreds of foral offerings were distributed by the girls of the B '12 class, and the orchestra rendered a last number, "Galop Militaire." ry Oakley, Norma Peck, Emily terson, Grace Lilian Phelps, Etta ise Post, Path Roberts, Marisita pham Ree, Anne Hazlitte Sale, is Alice Sloan, Olga Mae Speer, riel Tatem, Blanch Lenore Vance, old M Web Traces Grace Web

President Scott of Board of Education, Tells Students of the Necessity for Character Equipment as Armor Against Cerruption — Commencement Programme—The Graduates.

"Chas of '07," said Joseph Scott, president of the Board of Education, to the first graduates of the Polytechnic High School at Temple Auditorium yesterday afternoon, "we, the Board of Education to the first graduates of the Polytechnic High School at Temple Auditorium yesterday afternoon, "we, the Board of Education, to the discharge of your duty in the public activities of the school; we congratulate you on your success in the self government of the Institution, and we hope that in years. sethool; we constratulate you on your success in the self government of the fastitution, and we hope that in years to come, when your steps shall lead back to the halls of your alma mater, you may hear again what today sounds in your ears as you stand surrounded by friends and fellow-stundents. Well done thou good and faithits, 'Well done, thou good and faith-

This summer and winter classes '07, were seated upon the stage with its parti-colored flowers, filling one side and making a feathery border at the footlights. The graduates were fifty-two clear-eyed, purposeful, wholesome products of Polytechnic training.

Their latent potentialities were in the mind of the orator of the afternoon, as he recounted the crucial moments in the country's history, and the physical and moral fiber of the men who mot them.

School class of '97 has come and gone, and it will not be soon forgotten by those who had part. The floor of the Mason Operahouse presented a gay banner-bedecked spectacle and the cream and gold mingled with the green and white as if they never had been "hatted rivals." There was a class day atmosphere about the place; "scrubs" in the galiery would cheerfully shout their candid opinions of the seniors below, and the seniors would smile indugently, and wave their banners to and fro. Every seat was taken and many applicants were denied.

The play, "The Bachelor's Romanee" is well known, and it was produced with credit by the boys and girls with no aspiration or training for the stage. No sweeter nor simpler little Sylvia Somers could be imagined than the one Miss Elsis Behymer presented yesterday. There was an ease and unaffectedness about Miss Behymer's acting that charmed her abidence from her first entrance.

As central figure, Alonso Hitchcock played a most convincing and lovable bachelor. His little mannerisms, his quaint helplessness and the quiet touches of humor were excellently, brought out by the young actor and his incidental syndering of "Sally in Our Alley" made a decided hit.

Next to the bachelor himself, the old secretary, Martin Beggs, quite won the hearts of his hearers as he was portrayed by Verne Rogers. As Miss Clomentina, somewhat advanced in years and blessed with the stride and general disposition of a British grenader, Alma Murphy drew gales of applatuse. Miss Murphy's warlike air, her make-up and above all, her wondrous stride, were inmittable Lyman McPieplayed the part of Gerald Holmes, the man of the world.

The classmates of the actors were easily amused. When the old bachelor called Sylvia "darling" there was an audible sulcker; when Harold Reynolds the young reporter, played by Arnold Wall, declared his love to Sylvia, the audience seniors, scrubs and all, howled undisquisedly.

Miss Mary Karnahan, as Harriet Leicester, was a very pretty society

A'deluge of flowers descended on the successful young Theapians, after the third act. Before the play was put on, Revel Miller, president of the class, delivered a speech, and after the play all the 160 members of the class, cream and gold arrayed, trooped on the stage in twenty years, look him straight between the eyes, and know that you are as true and as fine as you are today.

"This is a bright day for you, when the first graduating class of the Polytechnic High School goes out from the tostering hand of Mr. Francis, and a bright day for Los Angeles that it has a polytechnic institution where the hand and the brain are trained for the battle of life."

The auditorium was filled from pit to dome with an enthusiastic audience of parents and students, teachers and members of the Board of Education. The exercises were begun with a selection from Tannhauser by the school orchestra. Lawrence Lewin followed with a stirring oration called "The Californian," and Miss Faye Sylvester delivered an oration on a rather deep topic, "The Point of View." The Boys' Giee Club sang a tuneful medley, Newin's "Happy Songs of Long Ago," followed by "The Water Mill." "The Small Farm" was a sensible argument delivered by Lawrence Bell, and Miss Dorothy C. Golding, made an oration.

Second-street Graduation.

Thirty-six boys and girls received their diplomas at the Second-street School yesterday afternoon. The graduating exercises were held under direction of the teacher, Miss Lovejoy, The programme included an address by Hon. A. A. Sturgess, an address by Fred Newton, the class president, plano solos by Misses Hazel Ashbaugh, Gertrude Howard, Stella Schneider, and Hazel Newton, the class history by Walter Young, class prophecy by John Kellar, recitation by Margaret Northrop, and the presentation of diplomas by the principal.

GARDEN PARTY.

An ideal afternoon, picturesque surroundings and gracious hospitality combined to make the garden party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt and Mrs. David B. Van Slyck, one of the most brilliant functions of the summer season. The scene of the festivity was "Hill Crest," the home of Mrs. Hoyt, and some 400 invitations were extended and most of them accepted. Noble trees, close-cut lawns, arbors and rustic teahouses and a natural cafion furnished a charming setting for an out-door fete. The vertandas were fitted up with rugs and tables, and here refreshments were served by quaint little Japanese in natity of the constants. GARDEN PARTY.

CAUSES SENSATION.

Frank Thorpe, who is charged with burglary, was given his preliminary examination in the Recorder's Court yesterday. He made such startling accusations against Mrs. I. F. Edgell, who had charged him with the crims, that the case was continued by the District Attorney until Saturday morning in order to investigate these charges.

Thorpe, who had been charged with stealing a watch and two rings, claimed that the jewelry had been given to him by Mrs. Edgell, with whom he had been holding fimproper relations and who had promised to elope with him to Los Angeles. He claimed that unfortunate circumstances had frustrated the plan and that the save herself she was compelled to have him arrested. It was further claimed that Mr. and Mrs. Edgell are not husband and wife, and that the presence of the former is most unpleasant to the latter.

Thorpe is a graduate of Holy Ghost College, Pittsburgh, Pa. He is now held in the custody of the Sheriff.

SAN DIEGO, June 27.—Although it is against the law to shoot in the city limits, the Park Commission has empowered its president, George W. Marston, to make arrangements for a series of rabbit hunts in the city park. The action of the hoard is due to the fact that the rabbits are destroying the shade trees and shrubbery being husbanded by the commissioners. An experienced hunter will be employed, who will organize a series of hunts in the hope of exterminating the pests.

The Scientific Treatment of Weakness Dosing the system with powerful stimulants and tonics in an effort to restore functional vigor can have but one final result: The condition is rendered worse than before. "Weakness" is merely an indication of a low form of inflammation in the prostate gland, and this inflammation is but aggravated by stimulating remedies that excite temporary activity. I employ the only scientific and fully effective treatment for "weakness," which effects a permanent cure by restoring the prostate gland to a sound and healthy state. I obtain complete results in every case I treat. Interesting literature and a beautifully engraved chart free if you will call.

STRENUOUS PROTEST GREETS

Confusion Over Griffith and Griffin Avenues—Neither Will Yield Name. Fairbanks Boulevard Not Popular With Those Now Living on Plain

An attempt to revise the list of street names in the southern part of the city has awakened some of the city has awakened some of the most indignant protests of the preent administration. All through the Firth and Sixth wards street names are willing that the names shall be changed so that each street shall be a mituous thorough-fare from the east to west boundary, providing the change does not affect the especial street on which they are set against each other by their respective constituents like gladiators in the arena. GIVE FRIENDS THE SLIP.

By carefully hiding their identity at the Lankershim Hotel early yesterday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Menthew, married late Wednesday night, were enabled to escape a celebration prepared by some of the friends of the groom. All sorts of "roasts," tricks and embarrassing jokes were planned in honor of the newly-married couple, following the wedding on Magnolia avenue. But Menthew had secretly engaged a fast automobile, and before his friends could grasp the situation. Mr. and Mrs. Menthew were bowling down the street. A search at the hotels did not reveal their whereabouts. Yesterday the couple left for their wedding trip, unscathed by rice showers and the customary bombardment of old shoes and other bric-a-brae.
